

Your Personal Leadership Statement

Part 1: Self-Assessment

1) List three strengths that you bring to your leadership role.

2) Identify three areas for improvement or growth in your leadership.

3) What are your core personal and professional values that form the foundation of your decisions and actions as a leader? List up to five.

4) Describe what motivates you as a leader.

5) Think of a challenge you recently faced. How did you handle it?

Part 2: Define Your Leadership Identity

Self-Regulation:

To maintain discipline and consistency, and ensure alignment with my goals and values, I will manage my behavior by:

Goal-Setting:

I will lead myself toward my goals, focusing on measurable outcomes by

Self-Motivation:

I am driven by

To sustain this motivation, especially in challenging times, I will

Resilience and Accountability:

When facing challenges, I will and hold myself accountable by

Leadership Style:

What is your style? Servant Democratic Autocratic Transformational
 Bureaucratic Coaching Strategic Transactional

In leading others, I aim to

I promise to lead by example, showing

Part 3: Craft Your Leadership Statement

Based on your responses above, write your complete personal leadership statement here.

Commit to Your Leadership Journey

Sign and date below to affirm your dedication to living and leading by the principles outlined in your Personal Leadership Statement.

Signature _____ Date _____

Set a reminder to regularly review and update your leadership statement. Continuous reflection and adaptation are key to effective leadership.